“ Mia

When you looked up into the stars you saw where you will be free to roam free to go wherever you wish all is clear there are no clouds separating this world any longer when you pass into the next life this life is no longer the end this life becomes the beginning we are living now we hold dear and will never fear passing thru to the next life I cherished every moment and will remember as you were happy spunky and full of smiles and bright eyes with the cutest grins those that await their turn some will miss you and your presence dear Mia pray for them even if its futile. I saw you peak in my window, You were on your way, I looked and saw you running through fields towards the setting sun I pray for your happiness and your comfort so be on your way as you explore the vast universe I realised you went two days before you let go of this world, you hung on to this world with all your might, relax now you are fine have no fear you are free now.

Love You Mia

“ Women Fighting Bladder Cancer group introduced me to Miracle. She gave her time to make sure the group were supported by her kind, measured words. Such strength she showed and gave to others. I hope her family can take strength in the fact that Miracle's life meant a lot to so many. There are a lot of people who were glad to have Miracle in their life! I am one! My fight continues! xxx

“ I also knew Miracle through the Bladder Cancer Facebook group, but I loved reading her posts, full of encouragement and faith. She was a constant support with her posts of positivity and inspiration. She checked up on everyone who had not posted for a bit, and I admired that. She touched my life, and I will miss her, even though we never met in person. May her spirit find peace.

She was such a beautiful bright light and i will miss her terribly. I only wish i had met her in person. Goodbye my dear facebook warrior, fly high with the angels. Love karen in the UK

“ I am so saddened and hurt by Mia Passing. She was such a loving and caring person, I could always hear her smiling voice on the phone when I would call. It was a year after I started working at Travel Inc that we both realized that we had a connection from a long time ago. It turns out that her sweet Mama had babysat my daughter when she was a baby when I lived in Atlanta a long time ago... Wow !! What a small world !!...my heart goes out to her family and I pray that the comfort of God gives them strength and peace through this most difficult time.

“ Miracle and I became friends last October through an on-line bladder cancer support group. We e-mailed back and forth daily, and we both got bad news just before Thanksgiving. She was so positive, the brightest light during a very dark time. She was my Buttercup and I was her Morning Glory. Even though the e-mails stopped, I still look for hers every day. Please know that she loved her mother, daughter and granddaughters with a fierce passion. Oh, Miracle, how you will be missed.

“ Mia is a kind, sweet and compassionate soul. A true beauty - unique and creative. She could brighten your day with a flash of her beautiful smile or her kind words of encouragement. She is loved by so many. The stars will shine brighter now with her sparkle among them. Corri Parker

“ Mia is such a beautiful soul. That will never end. She fought so hard, for so long, and always with a determined smile in her voice. Her body gave way sooner than hoped, but her soul will live on in the hearts of all the lives she touched. At work, she was always the 'go-to girl', always willing to give patient assistance. Given a challenge, she was a pit-bull looking for a solution. Her knowledge of formats and the travel industry in general was amazing! On a personal level, she was a soul-mate. We shared our joys as well as our heartaches. I will miss her dearly, but know that she is now in a better place. You are free now, Mia! I will see you someday on the other side.

“ I had the pleasure of working closely with Mia at Travel Incorporated. She was always in a cheery mood. She had a smile for everyone and could bring humor into any situation. We had so many laughs. Her family was her everything. Always so proud and eager to share pictures of her grand kids especially. She was a vault of knowledge and made my days here at Travel Inc. that much better. I will dearly miss her. She wouldn't just wish me a Happy Birthday, she would sing it over the phone and had quite a voice. It was quite the production. She was my Pisces sister. I will miss her dearly. I will never forget her, and know I will think of her often and always.

“ Mia was a beautiful person inside and out and she really made my job easy when it came time to review her calls because she was always a ROCK STAR with our clients. She shared her knowledge with others to make their job a breeze. And she shared stories and pictures of her grandchildren as they grew and did exciting things. I am praising God she is now with Jesus and we'll see her again. I am praying for the peace and strength of her family and friends as I know her presence here is missed.

“ Mia was always coming up with ways to make everyone's life easier at work. She would research all the shortcuts to make our jobs easier and pass them on to everyone. She also always had the very best customer service finding ways to make our clients life easier on the road and in the office. She loved art and we would spend time talking about her current projects. She was always showing us pictures of her grandchildren growing up. We enjoyed those pictures. Mia was a sweet kind person and will be missed. It was a pleasure to have known her all these years. Betty Edwards
