“ With my deepest sympathy
As you grief the loss of your dear loved one, may the memories that mean the most to you live close to your heart along with "God promise to wipe away the tears from your eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be any more the former things have passed away."

“ She was one of my childhood friends and have so many wonderful memories. Going to church and school together. She was one of sweetest people we will ever know.
RIP Nan

“ Dear Bryan,
Our hearts were broken into pieces when we heard the news that your wife Nan had passed away. We cannot imagine the pain and sorrow you must be feeling right now. We hope that we can offer you some comfort right now, but we know that nothing can take away the pain you are feeling during this difficult time. We want to let you know that you are in our prayers and thoughts, and that God will lift you up in this trying time. Please accept our sincere condolences and think of these words as warm hugs that will give you comfort during this difficult time.

“ I have no words meaningful enough to describe Nan and the loss I feel. She was such a blessing to me while raising my 3 sons and the Robbins have been friends for over 30 years. She truly exemplified a woman who loved the Lord with her whole heart and her family was the absolute light of her life! I am so thankful I was able to share in the celebration of her 50 years of marriage. I love you Nan so much and blessed that the Lord put you and your family in my path. Looking forward to seeing you again one day.

“ Lynn, you and your family are in our thoughts and prayers! Nan was the best of the best! Her personality filled a room, her laughter spread joy, her love for her family was all consuming and her faith in God was so pure and strong. She was loved by everyone she met and she loved them back! I will forever treasure our girls' weekend in AR and so grateful we were able to see her this fall! She will be missed, but I smile when I imagine her gathering up Heavenly volunteers to sing in the choir or for whatever she saw a need! She was loved! God bless and comfort you all!
